

elearning

Establishing the Fundamentals

Coloplast®

Professional

The online courses available include:

Introduction To Bladder & Bowel Management

This course is designed to give the learner an understanding normal anatomy and function and an overview of bladder and bowel dysfunction. On completion the learner will be able to support adults with basic conservative management of bladder and bowel symptoms and know when more support is required / spot red flags.

Who would benefit from this module:

Health Care Assistants, Therapy Assistants, Student Nurses, Basic Grade Nurses, Return to Practice, Continence Ambassadors, Specialist Physiotherapist, Community teams.

Management of Bowel Continence in Adults

This course is designed to give the learner a more in-depth understanding of bowel dysfunction and conservative management.

Who would benefit from this module:

Student Nurses, Basic Grade Nurses, Return to Practice, Continence Ambassadors, Specialist Nurses, Healthcare Assistants supporting Specialist practice, Nurses in A&E, Community teams.

Management of Urinary Continence in Adults

This course is designed to give the learner a more in-depth understanding of bladder dysfunction and conservative management.

Who would benefit from this module:

Student Nurses, Basic Grade Nurses, Return to Practice, Continence Nurses, Urology Nurses, Specialist Physiotherapists, Continence Ambassadors.

Advanced Bladder Management - Principles of ISC

This has been developed to provide learners with an understanding of ISC and builds on the knowledge gained in the Introduction to Bladder & Bowel Management and Management of Bladder Continence in Adults modules. On completion of this module it is possible to gain practical training / competency in ISC – speak to your Coloplast representative for more details and course dates.

Who would benefit from this module:

Specialist Nurses, Health Care Assistants supporting specialist care, Return to Practice, Continence Nurses, Urology Nurses, Specialist Physiotherapists, Continence Ambassadors.

Advanced Bowel Management - Principles of Peristeen Anal Irrigation

This has been developed to provide learners with an understanding of Peristeen anal irrigation and builds on the knowledge gained in the Introduction to Bladder & Bowel Management and management of Bowel Continence in Adults modules. On completion of this module it is possible to gain practical training / competency in Peristeen Anal Irrigation – speak to your Coloplast representative for more details and course dates.

Who would benefit from this module:

Specialist Nurses, Health Care Assistants supporting specialist care, Return to Practice, Gastrointestinal Nurses, Specialist Physiotherapists, Continence Ambassadors.

Management of Bladder & Bowel – Spinal Cord Injury

This has been designed to provide learners with a sound understanding of the complex continence needs of patients with Spinal Cord Injury. The module is designed to build on knowledge gained in Introduction to Bladder and Bowel Management, Management of Bladder Continence – Adults, Management of Bowel Continence – Adults, and should be taken before embarking upon Advanced Bladder Management - Principles of ISC, Advanced Bowel Management - Principles of Peristeen Anal Irrigation.

Who would benefit from this module:

Student nurses, Nurses in Spinal Units, Specialist Nurses, Healthcare assistants supporting Specialist practice, Return to practice, General Nurses in A&E, Community teams.

Management of Bladder & Bowel – Paediatrics

This has been designed to provide learners with a sound understanding of the continence needs of patients under the age of 16. The module is designed to build on knowledge gained in Introduction to Bladder and Bowel Management, Management of Bladder Continence – Adults, Management of Bowel Continence – Adults, and should be taken before embarking upon Advanced Bladder Management - Principles of ISC, Advanced Bowel Management - Principles of Peristeen Anal Irrigation.

Who would benefit from this module:

Student nurses, Paediatric Nurses, Specialist Nurses, General Nurses, Community teams, Return to practice.

The Coloplast Professional online courses are designed to provide a theoretical framework to support you with your professional development. The courses have been built in association with a team of Clinical Experts and provide up to date evidence and information to support clinical practice. Completion of the on-line course is the first stage of the learning process.

To attain competence within this field of practice you must undergo supervised practice within your clinical area with an experienced practitioner.

All
e-learning
is CPD accredited

How do I get started?

You can access the Online Training Portal anytime from anywhere that you have access to a computer and the internet. Follow these steps to register and access the online courses from Coloplast Professional.

Go to the Coloplast Professional Online Training Portal website at:
<https://coloplast.kineoportals.co.uk/>

1. If you have not registered before, you'll need to create an account by clicking on 'Register now'
2. Enter the password 'coloplast' when prompted.
3. Fill in all of your details as requested:

Username – this can be anything you want it to be

Password – this can be anything you like (4 character minimum)

First name

Last Name

Job role – select from the drop down menu

Email - please use your work email address

Phone – please use your work phone number

Hospital / place of work

Work address line 1

Work address line 2

Hospital / place of work city

County

Postcode – use your work postcode. If you are registering in Ireland and do not have a postcode, please enter 'Ireland' as your postcode

Country

Once you have entered your details, you will be asked to confirm which courses you want to access. Please select the 'Continence courses' and then choose the name of your Trust / Organisation from the drop down menu. If your organisation is not listed below, please DO NOT complete your registration and instead contact your local Coloplast representative or email events@coloplast.com and we will add your organisation to the system.

